

Engaging local businesses before, during and after emergencies

CBi in numbers

275,000 local businesses

reached through our local networks. Member Networks represent large businesses as well as micro-, small- and medium-sized enterprises

18 million people

US$84 million

supported by emergency assistance, preparedness or recovery activities

mobilized by CBi Member Networks since the launch of the initiative in 2016

100+ crises

addressed by CBi and its Member Networks over the past five years, including tropical cyclones, major earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, and situations involving conflict, violence and displacement

What we do

CBi helps the business community to prepare for, respond to and recover from disasters in a coordinated and collective manner.

Working with private sector networks to build their capacity and connect them with the humanitarian community

Helping to coordinate business contributions during emergencies

Advocating for coordinated private sector engagement in humanitarian emergencies

Providing guidance, online courses and tools to businesses and UN partners

Our partners

CBi is jointly managed by the United Nations Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA) and the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP).

CBi is currently supported by

United Nations
Global Compact

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

CBi supports local private sector networks by building their capacity to engage in disaster management and improve communities' resilience

- CBi is jointly managed by the UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA) and the UN Development Programme (UNDP)
- CBi is made up of a global network of local business federations, chambers of commerce, trade federations, and associations in some of the world's most at-risk countries

Connect with us

-  connectingbusinessinitiative
-  connecting_biz
-  connecting-business-initiative
-  connectingbusiness.org
-  connectingbusiness@un.org

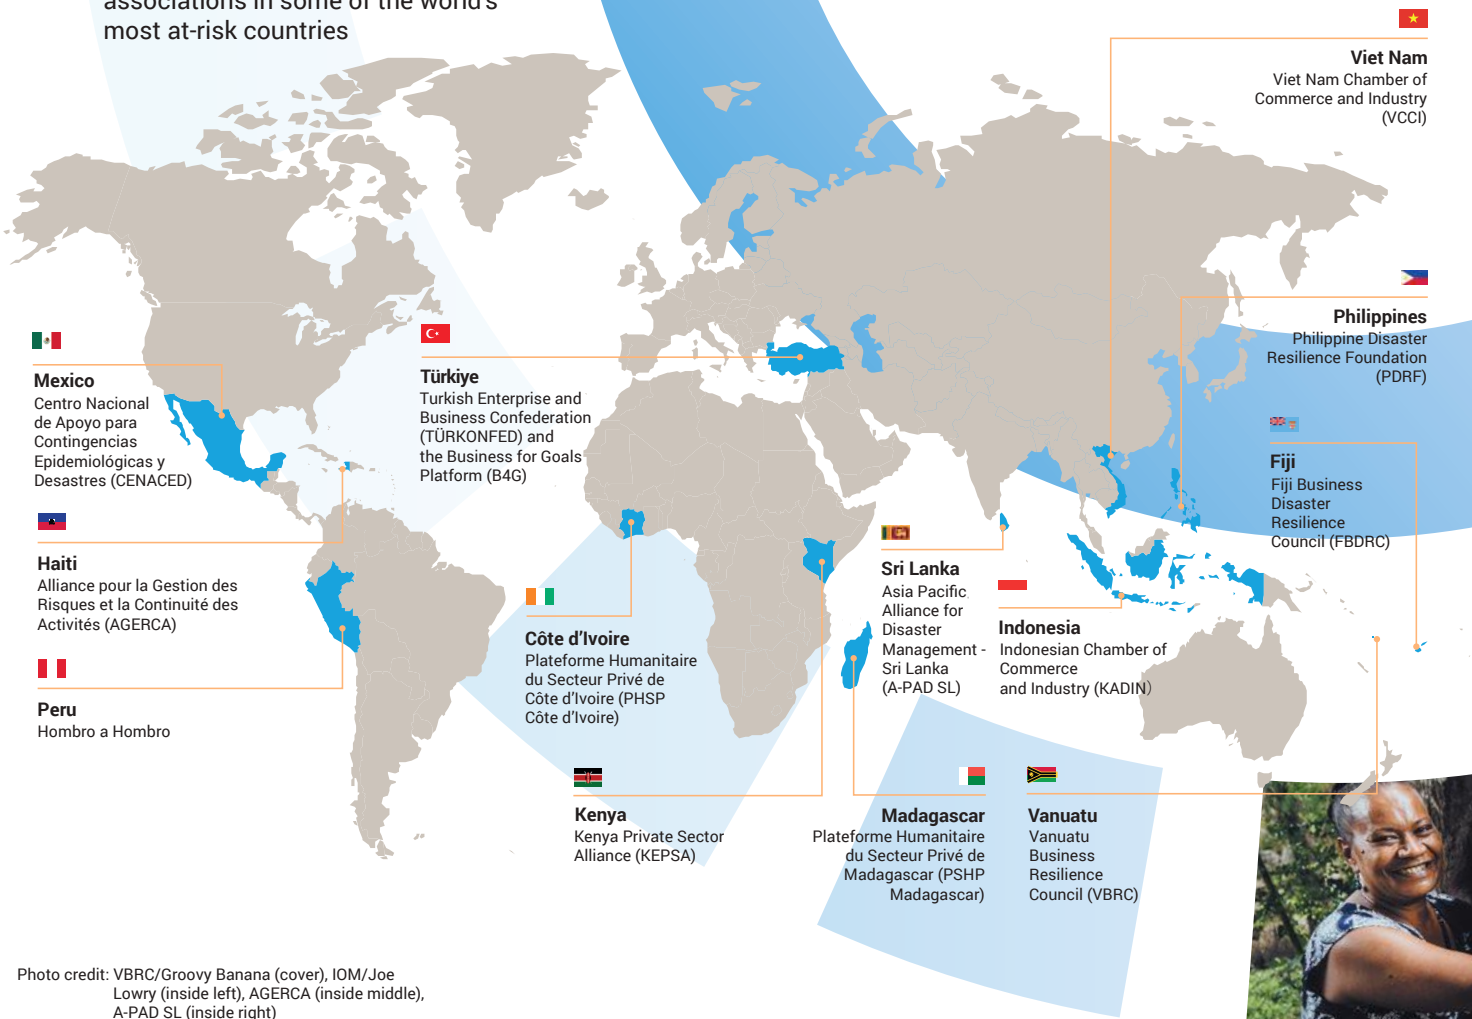

Photo credit: VBRC/Groovy Banana (cover), IOM/Joe Lowry (inside left), AGERCA (inside middle), A-PAD SL (inside right)